me: Dallas is such a scrub city Mirna: indeed me: I mentioned that I wrote a piece for D me: they're paying me $1,500 for it me: just got an e-mail from assistant editor Mirna: sweeeeet me: the fact checker was concerned that I had referenced "200 people me: " attending this event with Mark Davis, the guy I wrote about Mirna: 200 BITCHES me: saying there were more in attendence me: so I explained that I hadn't written anything about how many people were in attendence, and that the editor had added that line me: so basically of the couple of edits he made, he managed to put in something entirely incorrect me: which the fact checker then asked me about me: also Mirna: what an idiot me: 2. She was unable to confirm this statement: "....a series of treaties that were updated by George H.W. Bush, Bill Clinton, and area man George W. Bush, and which eventually resulted in an 80 percent reduction of all nuclear weapons."
me: So I had to explain to them that this refers to the SALT and START nuclear reduction treaties Mirna: haha me: which are in fact discussed in the article me: like, seriously Mirna: sounds like a real wiinning team you got there me: oh also me: OH ABSOLUTELY MIRNA me: they have their annual private school issue me: all of them buy ads for the supplement and put in pictures me: like 50 of them me: and ALMOST EVERY SINGLE ONE HAS THE SCHOOL'S RESIDENT BLACK KID IN THE PICTURE OF 4 or 5 STUDENTS me: EXCEPT FOR WHEN THEY ONLY HAVE A MEXICAN KID OR AN ASIAN GIRL me: it's ridiculous me: every single one Mirna: hahaha

Mirna: gross
